

Hans van de Waarsenburg was born 1943 in Helmond, from 1966 lives in Maastricht. His first book of poetry was simply entitled, Gedichten (Poems). So far he has published twenty plus books of poetry, Zuidwall / South Wall (1995), Beschrijvingen van het meer / Descriptions of the Lake (2000; Slovenian edition 2007) and others. His selected poems were published in Bulgaria, English edition, Selected Poems I and II, was published 2001 (B. A. C., Paris), and his Selected Poems (1980-200) were published in Macedonian (Blesok, Skopje, 2002).

Hans van de Waarsenburg published ten books for children, and for the book of poems, De Vergrijzing, received Jan Campert Prize (1972). He was president of the Dutch PEN Centre (1995-2001) and program coordinator of distinguished international literary festival, “The Maastricht International Poetry Nights”.